

Vietnam invited to attend G20 Summit in Canada

Monday, 10 May 2010

The Canadian Prime

Minister's office announced on May 8 that Vietnam has been invited to participate in the G20 Summit in Canada next month.

Four other countries which have also received an invitation are Ethiopia, Malawi, Holland and Spain.

Leaders from the five countries will meet with the permanent members of G20 on May 25-26.

This year's summit will focus on the world economy and employment.

(Source: Vietnamplus)